Airport Marking and Rubber Removal- As the weather start to warm, the SBY Regional Airport with spring back into painting the airport markings and conducting rubber removal. Proposed date MAR 25, 2019

Hangar Painting Update- Painting will begin in the spring with a new paint contractor. We have reached out to Ocean City Airport and Airport Manager Jaime Giandomenico has agreed to make available short term/ reasonable rate for you if you need a hangar. Please Contact Jaime Giandomenico at: JGiandomenico@oceancitymd.gov . We have started a list of first- Come-first-serve for vacant hangars. T-Hangers will be limited so get on the list as soon as you can.

For T-Hangar 24, Painting schedule is as follows: Just washing MAR 11 and MAR 18. Painting to Start on MAR 25. New weather stripping will commence installation is on-going. We will require access to your hangar. SBY Staff will escort the contractor at all times. We cannot accommodate individually requested times for installation.

UAS/Drone Center for Innovation- Construction will start late spring. Contract should be awarded by the end of next week- MDE has changed their criteria for wetlands- We are working with MDE to resolve storm water management issues and the delineation of the wetlands.

Box Hangars- Contract was awarded last summer. Contractor will not start construction at SBY until we have a maintenance facility. Contractor cannot get any pre-construction commitments due to this issue.

New FBO Partners will visit the in a few weeks-

Deer Cooperation – Deer are an inherent danger on any airport. We had in the past a significant population of deer on the airport property. With the recent blockage under the fencing and our deprivation efforts, we now have very few deer, if any, inside the fence. DNR has changed their policy and method for deer deprivation, stay tuned, a public information session will be scheduled soon.

New Badging and Gate Cards- Please call Jacquie to schedule a time to receive you new gate cards. After July 1, new gate cards will cost $20.00 and lost replacement cards will cost $35.00 .

Monthly Hangar meeting have resumed- every other month on the first Saturday.
